Course Description
A survey of accounting information critical for planning, control and business decision-making within an organization.

Prerequisite
ACCT 203 Financial Accounting; sophomore standing.

Required Materials

To register for Connect go to http://connect.mheducation.com/class/t-doupnik-spring-2017-tth-1215

Calculator: You will need to bring a four function (+, -, x, ÷) calculator to exams.

Learning Objectives
By the end of this course, you will be able to:
1. Explain how managerial accounting is used to support the key functions of management.
2. Describe different ways to think about costs, and identify costs according to their behavior.
3. Determine the cost of a product or service using traditional and activity-based costing systems.
4. Analyze and understand the concepts of contribution margin, breakeven point, and cost-volume-profit analysis.
5. Conduct incremental analysis to make a variety of managerial decisions (e.g., accept special orders, make-or-buy, keep-or-drop, sell-or-process further).
6. Prepare an operating budget and understand its use.
7. Demonstrate a basic understanding of standard costs and perform variance analysis between actual and standard costs.
8. Evaluate the performance of decentralized responsibility centers using several metrics.
9. Use a variety of techniques to analyze and make capital investment decisions.

Course Grade
Your course grade will be determined based upon the following:

Graded Homework Assignments [10 assignments x 15 points each] 150 points
Exams [(1 exam x 100 points) + (3 exams x 150 points each)] 550 points
Total points possible 700 points
Graded Homework Assignments:
For each of the 11 chapters covered in this course, you will be required to solve 3 end-of-chapter exercises and problems using Connect.
- Only your 10 highest scores on homework assignments will be used in determining your course grade.
Connect will grade each assignment on a 15-point scale, with each exercise/problem in an assignment receiving equal weight.
- For each homework assignment, Connect will give you three attempts to get the correct answer. All homework assignments will be scored by Connect at 11:59 p.m. on the day the homework is due. Late homework will not be accepted.

Exams:
Exams will be made up of a combination of problems, true-false, and/or multiple choice questions.
- Exam #1 – Covers Chapters 1 and 2 (100 points) (Tuesday, January 31)
- Exam #2 – Covers Chapters 3, 4 and 5 (150 points) (Thursday, February 23)
- Exam #3 – Covers Chapters 6, 7 and 8 (150 points) (Tuesday, March 28)
- Exam #4 – Covers Chapters 9, 10 and 11 (150 points) (Tuesday, April 25)

Course grades will be determined using the following scale:

Policies for Exams and Grades
- There will be no makeup exams. I will allow you to take an exam in advance ONLY IF you are unable to take the exam when scheduled due to participation in an athletic event or other extracurricular activity in which you are an official representative of the College. Appropriate documentation is required to support such a claim. Exam dates are shown above. Please inform me as soon as possible if you know you will be participating in an official College activity on one of these dates.
- If you miss an exam due to an excused absence, the average score on your other exams will be considered your grade for the missed exam. Absence from an exam will be excused only if I receive an email from the College’s Absence Memo Office indicating that you had a legitimate reason for missing the exam.
- If you miss an exam due to an unexcused absence, a grade of zero ("0") will be assigned for that exam.
- You may only have a four-function calculator and one or more pencils on your desk while taking the exam.
- Once you begin the exam, you will not be allowed to leave the room without turning in the exam as being completed.
- No "extra credit" assignments will be given. All grades will be based on the grading criteria established in this syllabus.

Cell Phones and Laptops
Please turn off your cell phone when you enter the classroom. While the use of laptops during class is permitted, please refrain from web surfing, emailing, and other laptop activities that are not intended to be part of the course.
Students with Disabilities
The College will make reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. Students should apply at the Center for Disability Services / SNAP, located on the first floor of the Lightsey Center, Suite 104. Students approved for accommodations are responsibility for notifying me as soon as possible.

College of Charleston Honor Code and Academic Integrity
Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when identified, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved. Incidents where the instructor determines the student’s actions are related to a misunderstanding will be handled by the instructor. A written intervention designed to help prevent the student from repeating the error will be given to the student. The intervention, submitted by form and signed by both the instructor and the student, will be forwarded to the Dean of Students and placed in the student’s file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive a XF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This grade will appear on the student’s transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the X to be expunged. The student may also be placed on disciplinary probation, suspended (temporary removal), or expelled (permanent removal) from the College by the Honor Board.

Students should be aware that unauthorized collaboration—working together without permission—is a form of cheating. Unless the instructor specifies that students can work together on an assignment, quiz and/or test, no collaboration during the completion of the assignment is permitted. Other forms of cheating include possessing or using an unauthorized study aid (which could include accessing information via a cell phone or computer), copying from others’ exams, fabricating data, and giving unauthorized assistance.

Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/honorsystem/studenthandbook/index.php

School of Business Learning Goals relevant to this course:
QUANTITATIVE FLUENCY: Students will demonstrate competency in logical reasoning and data analysis skills.
GLOBAL AND CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY: The skills learned in this course will allow Students to recognize and be able to appraise ethical dilemmas involved in business decisions and financial reporting, including internal and external pressures related to these topics, and competently engage in discourse aimed at resolution of these dilemmas utilizing relevant discipline specific knowledge.
INTELLECTUAL INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY: Students will be able to demonstrate their resourcefulness and originality in addressing extemporaneous problems. This course will enable students to prepare and interpret financial data and, based on the results of operations, identify areas to minimize certain expenses and generate additional revenue.
SYNTHESIS: Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate knowledge from multiple disciplines incorporating learning from both classroom and non-classroom settings in the completion of complex and comprehensive tasks. In this course, students will consider application of multiple studies including management, finance, and marketing.

Department of Accounting and Legal Studies Learning Goals relevant to this course:
This introduction course is designed to provide students with a basic understanding of the most fundamental concepts in accounting and thereby equip students to be Functional in their Knowledge of Accounting.
Instructions for Registering and Completing Homework Assignments with Connect

Register with Connect

2. Click on Register Now

3. Enter your email address
   - If you already have a McGraw-Hill account, you will be asked for your password.
   - Otherwise you will have to create a McGraw-Hill account.

4. You will see three options
   - Enter your registration code that you purchased along with the textbook.
   - If you did not purchase a registration code with the textbook, you can purchase a code online at the time of registration.
   - The third option allows you to use Connect without cost for two weeks, but you then have to purchase an access code to continue using it.

5. Fill out the registration form, and then click on Complete My Registration

6. Click on Go to Connect Now to complete your registration and go to the Managerial Accounting course homepage

Completing Homework Assignments

1. Click on the homework assignment you want to work on. The due date is shown next to the name of each assignment.

2. Solve an exercise/problem using paper and pencil and then enter your answers into the spaces provided in Connect.

3. At the bottom of each exercise/problem, you can ask Connect to Check My Work. You may use Check My Work twice for each exercise/problem. This does not count as an “attempt.” If you have answered the exercise correctly, move on to the next one. If not, you can try again. Connect will tell you which parts of the exercise/problem you missed.

4. There are Hints at the bottom of some (but not all) exercises/problems. If you click on Hint, connect will demonstrate how to solve a similar problem.

5. You can Save and Exit without submitting your work for grading. If you have not submitted your work prior to the deadline, Connect will automatically submit it for you.

6. Click on Submit to submit your work for grading. You will immediately receive a score for that assignment. Each assignment is worth 10 points. If you are not satisfied with your score, you can rework the assignment and Submit again. You are allowed to Submit three times. Only your highest score will be used for determining your course grade.
