

College of Charleston Strategic Investment Symposium
Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who is invited?
Anyone! Well, anyone with an interest in investing. The audience will be a mixture of students, faculty and staff, and (mostly) professionals that are interested in learning about differing ways of putting money at play.

2. How much does it cost?
The cost of the entire day's presentations (two morning sessions, and three afternoon breakout sessions), and the reception at the end of the day is only $75 for professionals and $25 for students.

3. Where do I eat lunch?
That is up to you! We break for lunch from 12:00 – 1:30 and encourage you to try one of the many excellent choices within walking distance of the School of Business. We will have suggestions!

4. I'm traveling in from out of town. Do you have a suggestion for where to stay?
There are a ton of great hotels within walking distance of the College. The Restoration on King, Francis Marion, and Charleston Place are just a few of the options. We are happy to help with any other planning if you would like... just let us know!

5. How do I pick the breakout sessions that I want to attend?
After you register, we will reach out to you closer to the date to ask your preferences on breakout sessions. There will be limited room in each. However, we will contact people in the order they register, so the earlier you register the better your chances of having a seat in the sessions of your choice.

6. I would love to attend, but I cannot attend all of the sessions. Is that okay?
Yes! We understand how busy schedules are. If you need to leave for some of the sessions, that is more than fine... just come and go as you can/wish. During the registration, you will be asked which of the events you will attend. However, the cost is all inclusive and universal for all regardless of how many events you can make it to. We hope that you can stay for the whole day!

7. Can I register multiple people at the same time?
Yes! You can register as many as you want. You just have to put a name in for each person.

8. I have a company and would love to be a sponsor for the Symposium. Can I do that?
We do have a limited number of spots open for sponsorship and at a wide variety of levels. In return, you get visibility for your firm with signage at the events, your logo on all promotional materials, and free admittance to the event. Please contact Dr. Mark Pyles (pylesm@cofc.edu) for more information if interested.
