Global Trade Resource Center
Summer Research Stipend
Application Format/Requirements

Name:

Email:

Phone:

Title of Research Project:

Co-investigator(s):

Abstract of Project (2000 words or less)

Relevance of Project to Global Trade (20 pts)
  • Need for the proposed project in improving global trade
  • Explain how the need was identified
  • Description of the potential impact of research findings and how the results benefit the global trade community
  • Description of how the results can be integrated into the teaching of global trade/international business

Quality of the Proposal (20 pts)
  • Objectives are clear and concise
  • Methodology is fully explained and adequate
  • Proposal shows familiarity with extant work in the field
  • Likelihood that the research will result in more than one publication

Plan of Operation - include a Gantt chart with the following (20 pts):
  • Present state of project
  • Key start and finish dates for literature review, data collection, data analysis, write up, submission, etc.
  • Expected completion date

Plans for dissemination (20 pts)
  • Description of mode and place(s) where results will be communicated
  • Description of how to expand results

Competitive Priorities (20 pts)
  • List competitive priorities

When was the last time you received a Summer Research Stipend?

Have you ever received School or College funding for this project?

Have you applied for any other summer research stipend this year? If yes, please explain.

Supporting documents to include with application:
  • Written statement of support from your program director, chair, dean and/or other academic administrators
  • CV