CofC in Ghana

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

May 13- 26, 2018

PROGRAM FEE- $3,400*
*(Subject to change & does not include tuition)

Students take one of the following courses:

FINC 360: Microfinance in Ghana

INTB: International Social Enterprise and Development of Ghana

Students will work on two social enterprise projects in Ghana. The project will be in OKURASE, Ghana and supervised by Project Okurase, a U.S. registered NGO. The primary objectives of Project Okurase is to carry out their vision of a community infrastructure that will reduce poverty and child mortality while improving the health and mental health of orphans and vulnerable children. They also work to empower women to improve health and well being. CofC students will work on a variety of projects related to the Project's mission, students' interests, and academic background. Potential projects are usually centered on social enterprise and economic development, water/ sanitation infrastructure development, education and skills training, and public health. This year, students will be assessing the financial viability of tilapia farming.
